PRESS RELEASE

The Chairman of the National Anti-Corruption Commission, CONAC, Reverend Doctor Dieudonné MASSI GAMS, informs the general public that on the occasion of the commemoration of the 18th edition of the International Anti-Corruption Day on December 09, 2021, CONAC will be organizing a training workshop for journalists on the theme “Journalism and the Fight Against Corruption: Being the Watchdog”.

The training will be held at CONAC's head office at the Yaounde Conference Centre and will bring together over fifty press men and women from the print and broadcast media.

The event is intended to sharpen the reporting skills of journalists on matters relating to corruption and to get them more involved in the fight as they go about their duties.

The International Anti-Corruption Day offers an opportunity to raise public awareness on the ravaging effects of corruption and to highlight the role of the United Nations Convention on the fight against corruption in tackling the ill. The Day also seeks to mobilize the population so that nations attain a critical mass of positive actors ready to say no to corruption.
