PRESS RELEASE

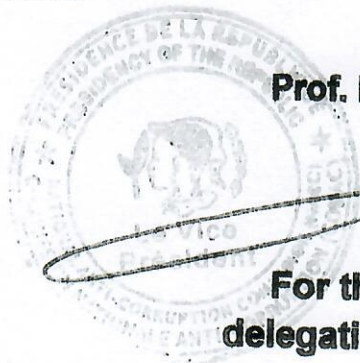

The National Anti-Corruption Commission will be organising a workshop with managers of community radio stations operating in some of the ten regions of Cameroon. This meeting will take place at the Commission's headquarters in Yaoundé on the 22nd of June 2023, beginning at 10 a.m. sharp.

The aim of this workshop is to prepare community radio station managers for the production and broadcasting of anti-corruption messages in local languages.

The meeting comes ahead of the official launch of CONAC's new communications approach, which is designed to reach out to people in the most remote areas with messages on the fight against corruption and the promotion of integrity, as a means of bringing about a change in behaviour.

A total of 64 community radio media men and women will attend the Yaoundé meeting, which will be presided over by the Chairman of CONAC, alongside representatives of the Minister of Communication and the National Communication Council.
