PRESS RELEASE

The Chairman of the National Anti-Corruption Commission, CONAC, Rev. Dr. Dieudonné Massi Gams, informs the public that on the occasion of the 58th edition of the Youth Day, CONAC is organising a sensitisation campaign on Integrity for youths from the 6th to the 8th of February, 2024, in the town of Nanga Eboko. The integrity campaign, which will mobilise youths in the city and the education community, seeks to expose the ills of corruption and integrate the youths in the fight against corruption.

This activity falls in line with article 13 of CONAC's constituting text, which prescribes actions to educate and sensitise the public against acts of corruption.

From the 6th to the 7th of February, 2024, teams from CONAC will proceed with the creation of Integrity Clubs in secondary schools in the city of Nanga-Eboko. This will be prior to a ceremony that will bring together all the members of the newly created Integrity Clubs, for an inter-school competition on Integrity and the fight against corruption on the 08th of February, 2024, at Lycée Classique de Nanga Eboko.
