PRESS RELEASE

The Chairman of the National Anti-Corruption Commission, Reverend Doctor Dieudonné MASSI GAMS, wishes to inform the public that CONAC will be organising an Anti-Corruption Clinic from the 15th to the 19th of April, 2024 in the South Region, as part of measures taken by the President of the Republic, His Excellency Paul BIYA, to bring CONAC closer to the public and to intensify the fight against corruption and the misappropriation of public property.

During this period, some of the operational services of the Institution will relocate to Ebolowa to gather, study and investigate reports of corrupt practices and, if need be, prosecute any cases of corruption and the alleged perpetrators of such practices.

The Chairman of CONAC therefore urges the inhabitants of the South Region to grab this opportunity and report to CONAC any corrupt practices of which they regularly witness or are victims of, by calling the toll-free number 1517 or WhatsApp 658 26 26 82, or by submitting a written complaint to the Anti-Corruption Clinic located in the Conference Hall of the Regional Delegation of Tourism and Leisure of the South.

The Chairman of CONAC counts on the collaboration of everyone to ensure that corruption is eradicated from all sectors of Cameroonian society.

Rév. Dr Dieudonné MASSI GAMS
