Yaounde, the 06 MAY 2024

PRESS RELEASE

The Chairman of the National Anti-Corruption Commission, Reverend Doctor Dieudonné MASSI GAMS, informs the public that CONAC will be signing collaboration agreements with 22 community radio stations from the ten Regions of Cameroon on Thursday the 16th of May, 2024, at the Yaounde Conference Centre.

These agreements to produce and broadcast anti-corruption awareness-raising messages and programmes in national languages mark the end of a year-long experimental period with 75 community radio stations.

This initiative, in line with President Paul BIYA's instructions of December 31, 2023, for the fight against corruption and the misappropriation of public funds to be intensified in Cameroon, seeks to better mobilise citizens to combat corruption and promote integrity.

The Chairman of CONAC, therefore, urges all citizens to avail themselves of the information on the fight against corruption, broadcast in their own languages on the 22 community radio stations selected for the first phase of the project.

Rev. Dr. Dieudonné MASSI GAMS

Chairman
